Victoria and Abdul (PG) 112 minutes

Monday 6th 8pm & Friday 10th November 2pm

The extraordinary true story of an unexpected friendship in the later years of Queen Victoria's (Academy Award winner Judi Dench) remarkable rule. Abdul Karim (Ali Fazal), a young clerk, travels from India to participate in the Queen's Golden Jubilee and is surprised to find favour with the Queen herself. The two forge an unlikely and devoted alliance with a loyalty to one another that her household and inner circle all attempt to destroy.

Wind River (15) 107 minutes

Friday 10th 8pm & Friday 24th November 2pm

U.S. Fish & Wildlife agent CORY LAMBERT (Jeremy Renner) joins a rookie FBI agent in a quest to solve the murder of a young Native American woman on the Wind River Indian Reservation in Wyoming. The veteran tracker uses the case as a means of seeking redemption for an earlier act of irresponsibility which ended in tragedy.

American Made (15) 115 minutes

Monday 20th November 8pm

Tom Cruise stars in this international escapade based on the outrageous (and real) exploits of a hustler and pilot unexpectedly recruited by the CIA to run one of the biggest covert operations in U.S. history.

The Jungle Bunch (U) 97 minutes

Friday 24th November 5.30pm

Maurice may look like a penguin - but he's a real tiger inside! Raised by a tigress, he's the clumsiest Kung-Fu master ever. Along with his friends, The Jungle Bunch, he intends to maintain order and justice in the jungle, as his mother did before him. But Igor, an evil koala, wants to destroy the jungle once and for all, helped by his army of silly baboons... The Jungle Bunch - to the rescue.

Young Frankenstein (PG) 136 minutes

Friday 24th November 8pm

Young Frankenstein brings together Mel Brooks's inimitable style with a cast of comedy legends led by Gene Wilder as Frederick Frankenstein. The young neurosurgeon (Wilder) inherits the castle of his grandfather, the famous Dr. Victor von Frankenstein. Young Frankenstein believes that the work of his grandfather is useless, but when he discovers the book where the mad doctor described his reanimation experiment, he suddenly changes his mind. Includes a special introduction from Mel Brooks in which he talks fondly about the late Gene Wilder and a tour of the famed Fox lot and Stage 5 in Hollywood, where Frankenstein was filmed.

Exhibition on Screen David Hockney (12A) 90 minutes

Tuesday 21st November 7.30pm & Monday 18th December 2pm £10

Widely considered Britain's most popular artist, David Hockney is a global sensation with exhibitions in London, New York, Paris and beyond, attracting millions of visitors worldwide. Even towards the end of his life Hockney showed no evidence of slowing down or losing his trademark boldness.

Featuring intimate and in-depth interviews with Hockney, this revealing film focuses on two blockbuster exhibitions held in 2012 and 2016 at the Royal Academy of Art in London.

Director Phil Grabsky secured privileged access to craft this cinematic celebration of a 21st century master of creativity.

A Woman of No Importance

Classic Spring Theatre (12A) 150 mins, 1 interval

Tuesday 28th November at 7.15pm £12

Olivier award-winner Eve Best (A Moon for the Misbegotten and Hedda Gabler) and BAFTA nominated actress Anne Reid (Last Tango in Halifax) star in this new classically staged production of Oscar Wilde's comedy directed by Dominic Dromgoole, former Artistic Director of Shakespeare's Globe. The first play from the Classic Spring Theatre Company's Oscar Wilde Season, A Woman of No Importance will be broadcast live to cinemas from the Vaudeville Theatre in London's West End.

An earnest young American woman, a louche English lord, and an innocent young chap join a house party of fin de siècle fools and grotesques. Nearby a woman lives, cradling a long-buried secret. First performed in 1893, Oscar Wilde's marriage of glittering wit and Ibsenite drama satirised the socially conservative world of the Victorian upper-class, creating a vivid new theatrical voice which still resonates today.
