The Happy Prince (15) 105minutes

Monday 3rd 8pm and Friday 21st September 2pm

The untold story of the last days in the tragic times of Oscar Wilde, a person who observes his own failure with ironic distance and regards the difficulties that beset him with detachment and humour. This great man of letters, once one of the most famous authors in England, is now a superstar on the skids. As he lies on his death bed the past comes flooding back, transporting him to other places and times. Starring Rupert Everett, Colin Firth and Emily Watson.

Mission Impossible – Fallout (12A) 147 minutes

Friday 7th 2pm & Monday 17th September 8pm

Tom Cruise returns as US agent Ethan Hunt, battling a global catastrophe while defying death with alarming regularity with much of the action taking place in London. After an IMF mission ends badly and Solomon Lane escapes custody, the world is faced with dire consequences. Ethan Hunt takes it upon himself to fulfil his original task but the CIA begin to question his loyalty and motives. Hunt finds himself in a race against time, hunted by assassins and former allies while trying to avert catastrophe. The Telegraph describes the film as “spectacular and eye-popping ... with a pleasing sinuous plot.”

Incredibles 2 (PG) 118 minutes

Friday 7th 5.30pm and Friday 21st September 5.30pm

Helen (voice of Holly Hunter) is called on to lead a campaign to bring Supers back, while Bob (voice of Craig T. Nelson) navigates the day-to-day heroics of 'normal' life at home with Violet (voice of Sarah Vowell), Dash (voice of Huck Milner) and baby Jack-Jack whose superpowers are about to be discovered. Their mission is derailed, however, when a new villain emerges with a brilliant and dangerous plot that threatens everything. But the Parrs don't shy away from a challenge, especially with Frozone (voice of Samuel L. Jackson) by their side. That's what makes this family so Incredible.

Mamma Mia! Here we go again (PG) 114 minutes

Friday 7th 8pm, Wednesday 12th 2pm & Friday 21st September 8pm

In Mamma Mia 2, Sophie (played by Amanda Seyfried), returns to her childhood home pregnant and single. With the help of her mother Donna's childhood friends, she is told the story of how her own mum prepared for a life with a daughter in a series of flashbacks. It will also go into more depth about the tricky situation Donna (played by Meryl Streep and, in flashback, Lily James) found herself in that left any one of three men Sophie's father. Just when she thinks things can't get any more complicated, her nan (played by Cher) also makes an unexpected appearance on the island.

You are invited to dress up for the show on 21st September to sing along – see Movies at Malmesbury Facebook page for details.

Royal Shakespeare Company
The Merry Wives of Windsor
Wednesday 12th September 7pm

SYNOPSIS

This comedy featuring Sir John Falstaff was first published in 1602, though believed to have been written sometime before 1597.

A LADIES' MAN

Sir John Falstaff, staying in Windsor and down on his luck, decides to restore his fortunes by seducing the wives of two wealthy citizens. He sends Mistress Page and Mistress Ford identical love letters, but they discover his double dealing and set about turning the tables, arranging an assignation at Mistress Ford's house.

JEALOUSY

Frank Ford has heard of Falstaff's plan and decides to test his wife's fidelity. Pretending to be Master Broom, he pays Falstaff to seduce his wife on his behalf, twice almost catching them together. The Pages' daughter Anne is pursued by three suitors. The French physician Doctor Caius is her mother's choice, whilst her father prefers Slender, Justice Shallow's kinsman. Anne herself is in love with Fenton.

Mistress Quickly is being paid by all three suitors to promote their cause. A duel between Doctor Caius and Parson Evans is averted when the Host of the Garter Inn plays a trick on them, and they in turn pay him back. In Windsor Great Park at night, Falstaff is set up for his final punishment - and one of Anne Page's suitors is successful.
