08. TO CONSIDER APPLICANTS SEEKING TO BE CO-OPTED ONTO THE TOWN COUNCIL

The Council had received five expressions of interest from residents seeking to be co-opted to the Town Council to fill the four vacant seats. It was resolved that the four who had been able to attend the meeting would be interviewed in alphabetical order and if one or more were not selected then another meeting would be held in order to interview the remaining applicant who had been unable to attend. In the event that the four applicants were found to be suitable there would not need be a further meeting.

The four applicants were each invited to give a short presentation and were then interviewed individually by members of the Town Council. At the conclusion of the interview process the Town Council moved to exclude all members of the press and public from the remainder of the meeting.

At the conclusion of debate all candidates were considered for each seat in turn which resulted in Catherine Burke, Gary Darling-Parkes, Peter James Newman and Paul Nicholas Julian Smith being co-opted to the Malmesbury Town Council.
