Details of forthcoming meetings below:

Thursday 28th November - Sara Gray - The extraordinary very early history of the Theatre Royal Bristol.

Known to us now as the Bristol Old Vic of course, Sara will talk to us about its highs and lows and its heroes and villains. From a riot at the “hut on Brandon Hill”, a secret door, predictions of idleness and debauchery, illegal performances, a gate crashed funeral and perceived insult to the American president, to its stars who took Bristol by storm – and an elephant. And this is just the first fifty years!!

Sara is a former primary school teacher, nearly retired drama teacher and life long theatre addict.

Decembers meeting will be a musical and theatrical event, details to be confirmed. This is always an interesting and fun occasion that usually involves audience participation!

Thursday 30th January - Paul Davies - Travel adventures in the Galápagos Islands through the eyes of an amateur photographer Paul, with his wife Yvonne, moved from to Malmesbury from Kent. Though he is keen on all forms of photography, he especially loves wildlife and landscapes and this talk will focus on both these aspects of the Galápagos Islands.
